

ROCKY MOUNTAIN
UNIVERSITY of
HEALTH PROFESSIONS
FOUNDATION

COMMUNITY REHABILITATION CLINIC

NON-PROFIT PHYSICAL THERAPY CLINIC

WHAT IS THE CRC?

The RMUoHP Foundation Community Rehabilitation Clinic is a non-profit, pro-bono, outpatient physical therapy clinic. It provides high quality physical therapy and rehabilitation to uninsured, and low-income families in Utah County. It also presents an educational and service experience for university students and volunteers.

WHAT CAN WE HELP WITH?

- Back pain
- Muscle, joint, nerve pain
- Multiple Sclerosis clinic
- Neurological rehabilitation
- Balance and gait training
- Post-surgical rehabilitation
- Athletic performance rehabilitation
- EMGs (Nerve conduction studies)

CONTACT US

587 South State Street Provo, UT 84606
Phone number: (801)375-2041
Email: rmuohpcrc@gmail.com

WHY PHYSICAL THERAPY?

Improve the way you move.
Movement is a key to optimal living and quality of life for all people. The goal of physical therapy is to transform society by optimizing movement to improve the human experience.
Exercise is Medicine. Surgery and medication aren't always the answer. Most conditions can improve or completely resolve through physical therapy.